Camp Hialeah is a small post and a great place to live. We are enjoying our time in Busan.

The Pusan Pub food is not innovative. Cooks and wait help long termers with little incentive to provide good service. They focus on Koreans for tips rather than Americans for service. Not impressed with base DCA. Seems to have a "no" approach rather than a "yes - we can work something out", customer service approach.

the mwr program for pusan is so poor, the autocrafts shop has insuffince tool/ broken tools and is duity,the peroson who works there has no knowledge of cars at all and is phsicaial incapple of any work or assistens to the coustmer..other coustmers help more then the man that works there, and there are some coustmers that have made that there own personal garadge and wharehouse. it is to the point where other people cant use it because of that, also half the tools are broken or missing coustmors that use the shop have taken them for there own use. the cac has for the past 20 years goes on trips that are of no intrest to the people here and it shows because they always cancel. it smells and the toliet is still broken and that was 10 years ago. the music instruments are all old and broken the pool tables need to be services bad!!! and the high school kids use the driveing range to make ou spot.. ACS is total useless the people that work there are rude and have a poor grasp of the english language. it seem that the only thing that they have info on is family viloiance this is a unaccopammy tour..Why do we need that? the pusan pub the food is just horrablile the only thing that they do is cator to the korean natinal and they steak the food come to you cold and the food quality is so poor and many people only eat there when nothing is open downtown. they menu is poor and overpriced. they have changed nothing in 18 years that i have been here. except the colour of the paper the menu comes on and renameing the same products with diffrent names what are you all going to do about it!!!!

The local Army Post is closing soon. Not much chance to get more services here, but it would be nice if they had bus tours with an overnight stay to some of the larger posts up north.

Definitely upgrade service and quality of food, entertainment.
Some sort of physical exercise class like a dance class (sports dance Aerobic class etc.....) would be benefit all around for moral bust up and get to know more people instead of permotting a drinking in the bars...

Schedule more "quality" local tours in Pusan

Schedule more "quality" tours outside of Pusan (i.e., Seoul, Osan, DMZ, Ski resorts, Beaches, Sorat Song Monuntain, Cheju Island, Independence Hall, etc) including overnight accommodations.

Schedule Ferry & overnight Ship travel to Japan for shopping (Arrange accommodations in Japan).
